01 / VISA ROUTE AND LOCATION

Passport and residence planner

Use the travel passport, the country where you actually live and your real trip purpose. This is a private preparation aid, not a visa form or an eligibility decision. Do not send identity documents to MyAusVisa.

STEP 1

Record the facts before choosing a visa

Citizenship / travel passport type _____

Country where I normally live _____

Purpose of travel to Australia _____

Possible visa subclass and stream _____

STEP 2

Read the chosen visa's location rule

- [ ] I checked which passport types the chosen visa accepts; residence alone does not create ETA or eVisitor eligibility.
- [ ] I checked where I must be when I apply and when Home Affairs decides or grants the visa.
- [ ] I checked the application channel and current charge on the official visa page.

My visa's application location rule _____

My visa's decision location rule _____

Example only: the overseas Visitor 600 Tourist stream requires an applicant to be outside Australia at application and decision. Its published rule does not say the applicant must be in their passport country. Other streams can differ.

STEP 3

Explain where you really live

- [ ] I will answer residence and travel-history questions truthfully and consistently.
- [ ] I identified relevant current work, study, family, home or lawful-residence records if my visa asks for them.
- [ ] I checked whether I may return to my residence country under that country's own rules.

Evidence relevant to my situation _____

STEP 4

Follow my own request letter

- [ ] I will use the biometrics letter and current overseas-services directory for my location, if requested.
- [ ] I will check any health, character, police-certificate or document request against my chosen visa.
- [ ] I will read ImmiAccount and email for a request or written decision; an appointment is not a grant.

STEP 5

If I move while waiting

- [ ] I will update Home Affairs if I will live at a new address for more than 14 days during processing.
- [ ] I will keep my email and phone current and recheck the decision-location rule before travel.

Next official action / deadline _____

> Requirements depend on your exact visa and any request letter. No residence document or checklist item guarantees a visa. Keep passport and application numbers private.
