01 / OCCUPATION AND ROUTE

Skilled visa route planner

Use this sheet privately to compare the points-tested 189, 190 and 491 routes. It is not an EOI, visa form or eligibility decision. Keep passport and test identifiers off this shared copy.

STEP 1

Record the occupation and evidence

Nominated occupation and code _____

Relevant assessing authority _____

Skills assessment result and date _____

English result and test date _____

STEP 2

Which first visa fits the plan?

QUESTION	189	190	491
First visa	Permanent	Permanent	Provisional: 5 years
Extra step	No state nomination	State/territory nomination	State nomination or eligible relative
Where to live	Read grant conditions	Check state criteria	Designated regional area

- [ ] Check the occupation list, assessment and points rules separately for each subclass. A score of 65 is the threshold, not an invitation guarantee.
- [ ] If considering 190, check the chosen state's current nomination criteria. If considering 491, check nomination or eligible-relative sponsorship and the designated regional area.

02 / INVITATION AND EVIDENCE

SkillSelect and next steps

> An expression of interest (EOI), state nomination or family sponsorship does not grant a visa or permission to stay. Recheck the official visa and invitation instructions at the time you act.

STEP 3

Keep the EOI and invitation accurate

- [ ] List a document for each age, English, qualification, work and other points claim in my EOI.
- [ ] Update the EOI before an invitation if a relevant fact changes; do not assume 65 points means I will be invited.
- [ ] If invited, read the invitation date and lodge the ImmiAccount application with supporting evidence within 60 days.

EOI ID stored privately _____

Nomination or sponsor question _____

STEP 4

If considering regional 491

- [ ] Check the postcode and visa conditions for the nominated or sponsored regional area.
- [ ] A later 191 permanent visa requires a separate application after an eligible holding period; it is not automatic.
- [ ] The current 191 page asks for ATO notices of assessment for three income years out of five and compliance with eligible visa conditions.
